PROFESSIONAL LICENSURE DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

This Disclosure is strictly limited to Southeastern College (SEC) determination of whether the Associate of Science and Associate of Applied Science in Radiologic Technology (the “Program”), if successfully completed, would be sufficient to meet the educational requirements for licensure or certification in a State, as defined by 34 C.F.R. § 600.2.

SEC’s AS and AAS Radiologic Technology program’s graduates are eligible to take the national certification examination administered by the American Registry of Radiologic Technologists (ARRT) and are eligible to be licensed by the State of South Carolina to practice Radiologic Technology. The Associate of Science program graduates are eligible to take the national certification examination administered by the American Registry of Radiologic Technologists (ARRT) and are eligible to sit for the Limited Radiography examination to receive a Basic X-Ray License in the State of Florida and the designated states below. The Associate of Applied Science program at the Charlotte Campus is licensed by the University of North Carolina System Board of Governors (UNC).

NOTE: This disclosure does not provide any guarantee that any one state licensure entity will approve or deny application for certification or professional licensure. Furthermore, this disclosure does not account for changes in state law or regulations that may affect your application for certification or licensure that may occur after this disclosure has been made. If your career plans include pursuing professional licensure or certification in your chosen field, it is important to become educated on the credentialing requirements of the state in which you hope to practice by contacting the state’s licensure entity.

Per 34 C.F.R. § 668.43, SEC has determined whether the program satisfies state educational requirements for licensure as follows:
